

typing done by ...

Sheraef Sid Abdssalam el-Bakkali has been in my service for about five years, <sup>he</sup> during ~~which time~~ he has accompanied me on all my journeys in Morocco. ~~We have visited~~ <sup>to Tetuan</sup> Fez, Mequinez, ~~Marraksh~~, and all the coast towns, ~~Marraksh, the Great Atlas. We have~~ <sup>and have</sup> for a long time been living in var-<sup>staying</sup> ious Djbala, Arab, and Berber tribes. Thus we have ~~been staying~~ <sup>spent 3 months</sup> among the ~~Berbers~~ of ~~the Great Atlas and its surroundings for~~ <sup>about 1/2 year</sup>
~~about three months~~, and among the Andjra mountaineers ~~for half a year~~. For the <sup>signal</sup> valuable services which ~~he~~ <sup>Sheraef Sid</sup> has rendered me on these ~~journeys~~ the Russian Minister at Tangier has rewarded him with a letter of protection, and the Geographical Society of Finland has ~~appointed him a member of that society~~. He has also travelled me in Europe, and taken part in the Orientalist Congress at Rome in 1899. He speaks English fluently, his honesty is above suspicion, and his knowledge of his country is exceptional. I strongly recommend him to any traveller in Morocco, and doubt whether he could find a better guide.

Tangier, September 26th 1904.

Edward Westermarck, PH.D.

Lecturer in Sociology at the Universities of London and Helsingfors, Lecturer in Sociology at the University of Helsingfors (Finland), Appointed Lecturer in Sociology at the University of London.

182:4

2 2
40 5
10 5

79.

2 2
8 5
15 5

190

1 1
1 1
12 1

902.

53 10

14.

7 10
7 13

20

5- 20:-

182:4

2 2
46
3
5
10

79.

2
8
5
15
1
1
1
12
53
10
2
10
7
13
20
5
20:-

190

982.

14.

