Dear Dr Wikman

Thank you very much for the copy of your paper on Prof. Strin-

The last winter I was in Finland
I had the privilege of reading to him T.S. Eliot's thought on a definition of Culture - (though I am not quite sure if that is the exact title) - and would have been so grateful to continue to read to him regularly - but he would only go on if I would accept payment and it really did not seem right to do so.

He was such a wide and generous - a fertile mind - that from those hours with him I had very much profit.

He was a great asset to your country and I cannot see anyone who has reached the same pinnacle and is able to pass on so much to his students - but perhaps there is some one.

Please excuse my delay in writing but I was anxious to read your paper before acknowledging it

Yours very sincerely
Alfred Dawson

Dear Sir

Soon after Prof. Westermarch died
I sent you some letters which he had written to me.

Being now 77 years old and not knowing anyone still living who would be interested in having these few which I kept back - I now enclose them for you to keep or destroy as you and your Society think best -

Yours faithfully
Apnes Dawson
