Albion's Sandal Stone Church Among Nature. Here, as and common household, the church was used as a meeting place for the congregation. The service was conducted in Latin, and the priest would read from the Bible in a solemn manner. The church was built in the 13th century and remained in use until the Reformation.

Descriptio: In this church, there are two organ pipes, one for the choir and one for the congregation. The church is surrounded by a beautiful garden, containing a pond and a large flower garden.

Addendum: The church is situated on a hill, and the view from the church is breathtaking.

Transcript: In the church, there is a large clock, dating back to the 17th century.
